There are 245 native frog species, of which 15 species are listed as Critically Endangered due to habitat loss, introduced species, climate change, and disease. Frogs play a vital role in our natural ecosystem by controlling the insect population and being good indicators of environmental damage.

Name ..... Age .....

Phone/Email .....

State of Residence ..... Parent/Guardian Signature .....

Australian Wildlife Society Colouring Sheet © Bush Connections