

Australian Wildlife Society Community Wildlife Conservation Award Nomination Form

The Australian Wildlife Society Community Wildlife Conservation Award will be awarded to a community conservation group that is making a major contribution to wildlife preservation in Australia.

Our Society will present a plaque and a cash award of $2,500 to the winning conservation group that is helping to save our precious Australian wildlife. Persons may nominate their own organisation or they may choose to nominate a third party who they believe should receive recognition.

Name of nominee: .....

Address .....

.....

Telephone ..... E-mail .....

Name of nominator: .....

Address .....

.....

Telephone ..... E-mail .....

Criteria:

1. How long has the group been engaged in the activities for which it is being nominated?

.....

2. Describe how the group has involved the community in its activities

.....

.....

.....

.....

3. Describe the nominee's contribution to educating the public on conservation issues

.....

.....

.....

.....

4. Describe how the group has educated the public on conservation issues

.....

.....

.....

.....

5. Describe the nominee's contribution to scientific understanding of conservation issues

.....

.....

.....

.....

6. Outline what you consider to be the major achievements of the nominee

.....

.....

.....

.....

The Australian Wildlife Society will accept nominations for the Community Wildlife Conservation Award via e-mail to info@australianwildlife.net.au or mail to PO Box 42 Brighton Le Sands NSW 2216.

Deadline for submission 31 December.

