

The waratah (Telopea speciosissima) is a member of the Proteaceae family and is best known for its large, bright red inflorescences. It is endemic to Australia and is the floral emblem of NSW. The waratah is protected under the NSW Biodiversity Conservation Act 2016, and picking its flowers is prohibited.

Australian Wildlife Society

Conserving Australia's Wildlife
since 1909 ©

Name..... Age.....

Phone/Email.....

State of Residence..... Parent/Guardian Signature.....